prime-time players

DWIGHT POWELL

A Toronto native, Powell is rated the third-best center and No. 37 overall senior recruit in the ESPN 100. He is considering Stanford, Georgia Tech, Virginia and Harvard.

OKARO WHITE

White led Clearwater to the Class 5A state finals last season, averaging 20.3 points and 7.6 rebounds per contest. Rated the No. 28 senior in the ESPN 100, he has committed to FSU.

JAMAIL JONES

With Justin Jackson now at Arlington Country Day, Jones becomes James Bell's right-hand man at Montverde. A Marquette commit, Jones is rated the nation's No. 61 senior in the ESPN 100.

AUSTIN RIVERS

The nation's top junior guard, Rivers led Winter Park to the Class 6A state semifinals last season. Although he committed to Florida as a ninth-grader, Rivers is also considering Duke after a September visit.

coach's stake

AN AREA COACH ON SHANE LARKIN:

"He's just a really good basketball player — good ball-handling, good shooting, good passing. He makes that team go. He's getting all kinds of major D-I looks."
